

Growth in Aged Care and Disability sectors will create jobs and local employment opportunities.

Data from the WA State Training Board estimates that an additional 5000 - 7700 workers will be required by 2020 - 2021.

Overview

North Metropolitan TAFE (NMTAFE) is the largest vocational provider of nursing and health training in Western Australia, providing significant training for the aged care and disability sector.

Significant challenges are currently facing the aged and disability sector. The ageing population, ageing workforce and roll out of the National Disability Insurance Scheme have placed an unprecedented demand on service delivery and the requirements for a skilled workforce.

Our expertise

Currently the college provides significant training for the Aged Care and Disability sector including:

- Certificate III Individual support Ageing, Disability and Home and Community specialisations
- Certificate IV Ageing Support and Certificate IV Disability, Certificate IV in Leisure and Health
- Certificate III and IV Allied Health, Certificate III in Health Services Assistant
- Variety of industry specific skill sets for existing workers and new workers
- Ad Hoc industry specific training

Aged Care and Disability Enterprise Training Program

NMTAFE is partnering with enterprises and consortiums, specifically those in the social and allied health sector, to train existing full-time, parttime and casual workers to fill current skills gaps and future workforce requirements through traineeships and skill sets. We believe keeping employees current with quality standards and best practice is a challenge due to the cost and backfilling of staff.

Our facilities

A Joondalup (McLarty Campus)

Our Health and Wellness Training campus features simulation hospital and nursing wards, and Disability and Aged Care Workforce Training Centre which features a Senior Wellness day Centre that provides both internal and exterior spaces for seniors and those with a disability to visit. This allows students to gain valuable skills in providing assistance to clients with regaining independence, with group activities and with encouraging social interaction.

B Mt Lawley

Our Mt Lawley campus focuses on delivering qualification in the health sector is had a simulated hospital learning environment and a purpose built training space to deliver Allied Health qualifications to support growth within the aged care and disability sector.

What our clients say

North Metropolitan TAFE works closely with partners including Brightwater, Hall & Prior, Juniper and WA Blue Sky to produce skilled graduates ready to join the workforce.

"Partnering with North Metropolitan TAFE using a new clinical model in the Certificate III Individual Support - Ageing qualification has allowed us to increase the amount of placements we offer. Brightwater's dedicated team of support staff work closely with North Metropolitan TAFE students throughout their training to develop their job ready skills. By the completion of their studies some students form an integral part of the team and have been offered employment which has benefited both parties." | Manager, Strategic Learning & Growth
